Hawkeye Farm Show Set to Showcase the Latest in Ag Products in Cedar Falls

Cedar Falls, Iowa – The Hawkeye Farm Show is set for March 4, 5, & 6, with more than 220 exhibitors featuring over 700 agricultural products and services. The 27th annual three day event is hosted on the campus of the University of Northern Iowa in the school's UNI-Dome. Admission and parking are free and the event is expected to bring over 20,000 area ag producers from Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Illinois.

A key theme for the 2014 Show is on technologies that increase production and also reduce waste and lower expenses. Advanced precision farming techniques will be featured, as well as products and systems to manage and balance soil fertility. The latest GPS technology and new agricultural drone technology will be on display, along with the latest in equipment, tools, seed, chemicals, and management software.

Seminars by ISU Extension, Free Coffee & Rolls, and Great Prizes

In addition to exhibits, ISU Extension Service and Outreach will present agricultural seminars each day at 11:00AM and 1:00PM in the Alumni Room. The seminars are free to attend and will feature new topics each day. Climatologist and ISU Professor, Dr. Elwynn Taylor, will kick-off the seminar series with the 2014 Weather Outlook at 11:00AM on March 4. A full seminar schedule is available at www.HawkeyeFarmShow.com

Attendees who arrive early will enjoy free coffee and rolls until 10AM, provided by Stop-Fire™ extinguishers. Attendees can also register for the opportunity to win $1,000 in Showbucks, sponsored by SureGrip™ net wrap and baler twine. Showbucks can be used as cash to purchase merchandise from farm show exhibitors. One Showbucks prize will be given away at 1:00PM each day of the show.
